

LMS Band Note

March 28, 2022

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

1. Jazz Band – Jazz Band will rehearse on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday this week in preparation for our festival next week.
2. MANU Jazz Festival – Our Jazz Band will be traveling to Mid-America Nazarene University on Thursday, April 7th for a performance and clinic. Our performance time is 8am and is open to the public. We will likely stay and listen to a few groups after our performance, grab lunch, and then head back to school. Schedule to come ASAP.
3. Q4 Objectives – Students will get their final playing assessments for this year this week. Due dates will be listed on their assignment. As a reminder: students can do their assessments as many times as needed to get them right until that last day to turn in homework for the quarter. The due date is the date at which they need to have at least attempted their playing assessment. Students get points for trying and completing their work. If your student is getting zeros on their playing assessments, that means they are not trying to turn them in.
4. Homework and State Testing – With state testing coming up, we will be mindful of adding to our student's workload during testing weeks. These tests are important and we want our students to be able to do their best. We encourage them to use their music practice as a time to decompress and have fun after testing days!
5. Class work: We have several students who are not turning in work for class. If your student has a missing assignment for band and they say they have turned it in, please have them show you the completed work on google classroom. Many times they are turning in the assignment with no work attached.
